

Name: _____

Date: _____

Module 17 Vocabulary

Across

4. is the amount that is left after taxes.
 5. your total income before income or other payroll taxes are taken out of it
 7. an identification card issued by a bank that allows a user to buy items and services immediately and pay the cost at a later time
 9. the money added to the cost of items and services. It is usually paid when an item is purchased.
 10. tax based on the amount of money you earn

Down

1. Tax withheld from a person's paycheck
 2. a portion of the value of items.
 3. Amount of money you earn
 6. money paid to the government in exchange for services, such as road maintenance and police protection.
 8. an identification card issued by a bank that allows a user to immediately use money from an account. You have a personal identification number (PIN) to keep it safe.
 11. a written order asking a bank to pay a certain amount from your account