

Name: _____

Date: _____

Modules 1-6

Across

- 8. An inactive substance given to a patient that is intended to truly solve a complaint through suggestion.
- 10. A prediction that prompts people to act in ways that make the prediction come true.
- 11. Altering conditions that influence behavior
- 12. A memory aid or strategy

13. The school of psychology that emphasizes the study of thinking, learning, and perception as whole units, not by analysis into parts.

Down

- 1. Thought that is active, effortful, and controlled
- 2. Tendency to give polite or socially desirable answers
- 3. An animal whose behavior contains principals of human behavior.
- 4. The tendency to consider a personal discription as accurate if it is stated in a general way
- 5. An in depth focus on all aspects of a single person
- 6. Exposed to all experimental conditions except for the independant variable
- 7. To examine oneself
- 9. The ongoing process of fully developing one's personal potential.