

Money Language

Across

2. Payments as a percentage of times sold or income made
4. Money that is earned according to the number of items or tasks completed
5. One and a half times normal pay when doing overtime
7. Currency used by almost every country

9. Extra money earned by employees who work with high quality or meeting an important deadline
11. Two weeks
12. A fixed amount divided to give a weekly, fortnightly or monthly pay
14. Money that you receive when you work
15. A job that you do as a living and what you mainly focus on

Down

1. Two times normal pay when doing overtime
3. A payment before sales
6. A job that you do on the side while you do other things such as school or university
8. When someone is paid more for when they work more than their normal hours
10. Payment calculated on the number of hours worked. Usually paid weekly.
13. A year