

Name: _____

Date: _____

Moral Development Crossword

Across

4. changes in moral beliefs as a person grows older and gains maturity
8. explained how morality of justice develops

10. about human rights—or more specifically, about respect for fairness, impartiality, equality, and individuals' independence

11. a system of beliefs about what is right and good compared to what is wrong or bad

12. , the most developed form of moral caring in Gilligan's model includes the coordination of personal needs and values with those of others

13. about human responsibilities—more specifically, about caring for others, showing consideration for individuals' needs, and interdependence among individuals

14. level of moral development that includes ethics of obedience and punishment and ethics of market exchange

Down

1. level of moral development that includes ethics of peer opinion and ethics of law and order

2. the most basic kind of caring is a survival orientation, in which a person is concerned primarily with his or her own welfare

3. level of moral development that includes ethics of social contract and ethics of self-chosen, universal principles

5. system of beliefs about human responsibilities, care, and consideration for others

6. a more subtle moral position is caring for others, in which a person is concerned about others' happiness and welfare, and about reconciling or integrating others' needs where they conflict with each other

7. practical programs that integrate ethical understanding, care, and action

9. proposed three moral positions about the morality of care