

Morphology & Syntax Crossword Puzzle

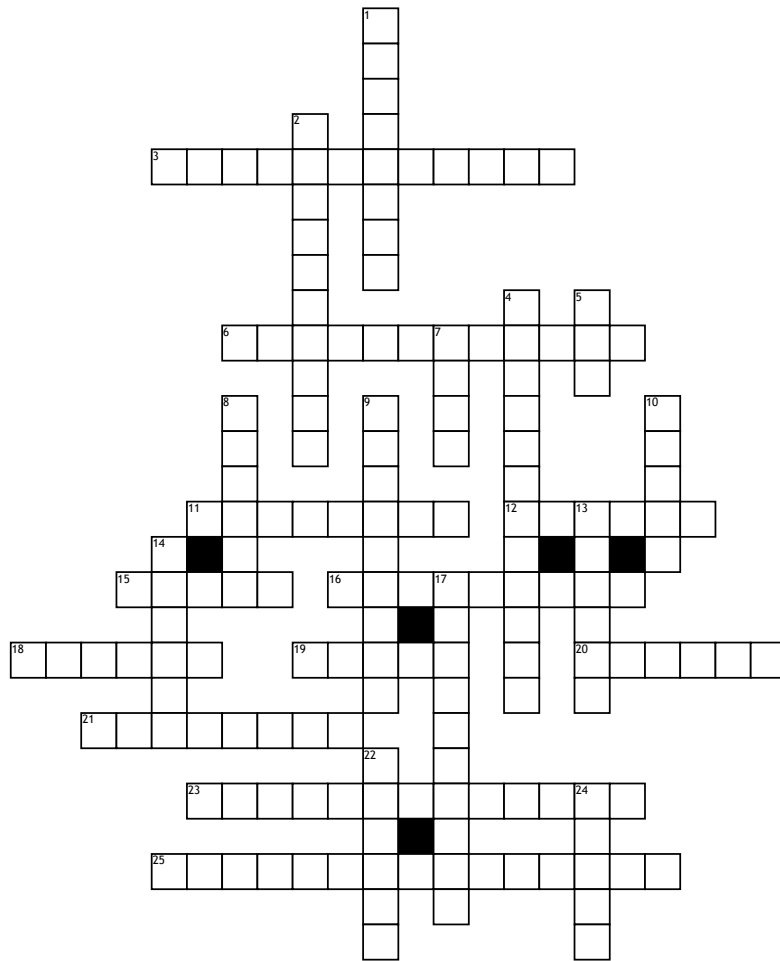

Across

3. morphemes that change form of the word, not the meaning or grammatical class
6. morphemes that will change form, but also change meaning or grammatical class, or both
11. superlative form of quick
12. the use of any of the forms of the verb to be as the main verb of the sentence or clause
15. the three noun _____ are nominative, possessive, and objective
16. not all verb phrases contain a(n)
18. present participle verb acting as a noun
19. what is the direct object in this sentence?: Mr. Smith presented the award to the student.
20. the body of rules used to construct sentences; the way in which words are put together to form phrases or clauses; and how clauses and phrases are put together to form sentences.

21. the smallest unit of language that has meaning
23. what type of adverb is "so" in this sentence?: "I need to move my car so he can get out."
25. cannot exist apart from other language elements as it does not carry sufficient information; cannot stand alone

Down

1. words(adjectives) which are used to modify nouns BUT they have come from a different grammatical class to do so

2. at its most basic construction, a sentence is a noun phrase + a _____
4. _____ link words, expanded phrases, and clauses together.
5. past perfect tense always contains _____ before the verb
7. third person objective plural pronoun
8. an assembly of phrases, having its own subject and predicate
9. verbs that are inflected for past tense by changing the internal structure
10. a modal auxiliary verb that begins with "w"

13. a word or group of words which have a shared purpose within the sentence; can modify the NP or VP
14. type of adverb that answers the question "how?" or "in what way?"
17. pronouns that refer back to a "general" person, place, thing, or abstraction; may function as a pronoun or adjective
22. what part of speech is "recently" in this sentence?: I chased a dog recently.
24. _____ represent 60% of child's early vocabulary