

Muscles

Across

3. 8. Cardiac muscle is only found in the?
7. 7. What affects smooth muscle by stimulating or inhibiting in some cases and altering the degree of response to neurotransmitters in others.
8. 4. Smooth muscles use a protein called?
11. 12. Cardiac muscle is self-exciting and _____?
12. 5. What helps join cells and transmits the force of contractions from cell to cell?
16. 17. What extends the digits?

17. 14. A muscle in the neck and back that moves the head is the?
18. 1. What is the layer of connective tissue that closely surrounds a skeletal muscle?

Down

1. 16. _____ is located near the outside with fibers that run obliquely in a slanting directions?
2. 2. What cause frequent jumping followed by lateral movement?
4. 6. The human body also has a _____ lever.
5. 3. What is another type of protein?

6. 11. Hormones affect smooth muscles by _____ or inhibiting contractions.
9. 9. Opposing ends of cardiac muscle cells are connected by cross-bands called?
10. 15. A muscle of large size in the pectoral region is called?
13. 10. What muscle is the more common type of smooth muscle?
14. 13. _____ is a muscle of facial expression.
15. 18. Epicranius covers the upper part of the _____ and includes two muscular parts, the frontalis and occipitalis?