

Name: _____

Date: _____

Musculoskeletal Injuries

Across

- 2. Bone remains on one side , broken on the other side (most common in children)
- 4. Bones that are jammed
- 5. A bone that becomes shattered into three or more fragments
- 6. Neck,back,calf, and thigh muscles
- 7. To be performed with the materials around you sure as wood, cardboard, padded with a soft towel, and make a sling if the fracture is located in the arm.

9. The bone is broken into a 's' shape caused by a twisting force

10. Long perpendicular break across the bone

Down

1. An injury in which one end of a bone making up a joint is separated or displaced from its normal position.

3. A fracture in which there is an open wound or break in the skin near the site of the broken bone

8. Break diagonally across the bone