

Music in the Middle Ages

Across

4. Latin for New Art
 6. Italian poetic and musical form that originated as a dance song
 7. Wrote the Notre Dame Mass
 11. Leonin and _____ were the founder of the School of Notre Dame
 12. A string instrument that is an ancestor to the guitar
 13. The text of Gregorian chant is set in this language
 16. Medieval music that consists of Gregorian chant and one or more additional melodic lines

18. This consists of texts that remain the same from day to day throughout most of the church year
 19. The wealthiest of the three social classes
 20. French Nobles and poet-musicians who wrote secular music

Down

1. Music with only one melodic line sung at the same pitch by any instrument or voice
 2. Music with several melodic lines
 3. Many notes sung on one syllable

5. The chant that is used for the basis for polyphony
 8. They performed music and acrobatics in dastles, taverns, and town squares
 9. Music that is non-religious in nature
 10. One or more long sustained notes accompanying a melody
 14. The last sung prayer of the mass ordinary
 15. One of the first woman composers
 17. Music that is religious in nature