

Musical Puzzle

Across

2. British name for quarter-note
3. A rectangular shaped instrument with 88 keys and the strings lie vertically.
9. Large instrument played with bow.
16. British name for thirty second note.
17. What is a symbol at the beginning of the piece that tells you what time the piece is in.
18. British name for half-note.
19. An instrument with 88 keys and a Box-like shape on three legs.
23. instrument that comes in Baritone, Alto, Tenor and Soprano
24. An instrument that has 4 strings, a solid body and Pickups always included.
26. British name for sixteenth note.
27. A type of instrument where the vibration of strings produces sound

29. Lowers a note down a semitone
30. An instrument that comes in Bass, Alto , Tenor, Concert, Soprano and Treble types.

Down

1. An instrument that has six strings and a hollow, box- like body.
4. Instruments where sound is produced buy air.
5. instrument played with drumsticks and has no power supply.
6. British name for eighth-note
7. instrument played with drumsticks and requires an amp and power supply.
8. Item used to play a cello and violin
10. Instruments where sound is produced buy the vibration of the players lips
11. instrument with its most common type being Bb

12. Instruments that are played by striking their surfaces with sticks.
13. A very small, rectangular shaped instrument that has less than 88 keys
14. A small instrument played with a bow
15. British name for whole-note.
20. A B C D E F G
21. raises a note up a semitone
22. returns a note to its original position
25. instrument that has 4 strings and a small, hollow box-like body.
28. Where music is written