

Name: _____

Date: _____

NAME THAT DRUG

Across

2. This hallucinogen can cause your mouth and teeth to decay.

4. Excess _____ use can cause or mask other emotional problems, like anxiety or depression.

5. This stimulant comes in powder, crystal, and rock form.

8. This hallucinogen has a range of effects including "pseudo-hallucinations" where you're aware that the images aren't real.

9. This man-made hallucinogen is created by mixing drugs and chemicals to mimic the effects of marijuana.

10. This "natural" hallucinogen can cause you to mix up senses, for instance "hearing" colours or "seeing" sounds.

11. Used to relieve moderate to severe pain. It belongs to the group of medicines called narcotic analgesics.

Down

1. This depressant causes your skin to itch and a decreased reaction to pain.

3. A hallucinogen that slows down your mental reactions and emits a strong odor with use.

6. Also known as MDMA, this drug is both a hallucinogen and a stimulant.

7. This hallucinogen can cause you feel "out-of-body" or "near death" experiences.

Word Bank

Ecstasy

Oxycodone

Heroin

Meth

Acid

Ketamine

Cannabis

Shrooms

Cocaine

Alcohol

Spice