

Name: _____

Date: _____

G4-G5-T-WS

Across

- 4. The distance from one key on the piano to the very next key.
- 6. The name associated with scale degree V.
- 7. The name associated with scale degree VII.
- 8. The name associated with scale degree III.
- 10. Bagpipe tunes played in the key of A Major are heard in this key.

- 12. G-sharp and B-flat are this.

- 13. The name of the tone that separates the tetrachords in a major scale.

- 15. A group of four notes

Down

- 1. The name given to the grouping of accidentals that may appear after the clef and before the time signature.

- 2. The name associated with scale degree IV.

- 3. The name associated with scale degree VI.

- 5. Bagpipe tunes played in the key of D Major are heard in this key.

- 9. The name associated with scale degree I.

- 11. The name associated with scale degree VII.

- 14. The name associated with scale degree II.

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-------------|------------|-------------|--------------|------------|
| OCTAVE | TETRACHORD | E-FLAT | KEYSIGNATURE | TONIC |
| SUPER TONIC | SUBMEDIANT | LEADINGNOTE | SUBDOMINANT | ENHARMONIC |
| MEDIANT | B-FLAT | SEMITONE | DYSJUNCTION | DOMINANT |