

Name: _____

NUR 300 Critical Care Meds

Across

2. Vasodilator/anti-anginal administered IV-PO-SL-Spray-Topically
8. Administered IV push for wide complex VTACH
9. Anesthetic used to sedate critically ill patients
12. Vasoconstrictor causes tissue damage if infiltration occurs
13. May reduce respiratory secretions or treat bradycardia
15. Administered IV infusion for pump problems

16. Beta blocker administered IV push

18. Administered for torsades de pointes

19. Assess apical pulse prior to administration

Down

1. Calcium Channel Blocker used in hypertension or possibly angina

3. Anti arrhythmic Class II drug used to treat VFIB or unstable VTACH

4. Treat pernicious anemia

5. Administered q 3-5 minutes during cardiac arrest

6. Administered low dosages for renal blood flow

7. Reduces SOB in CHF patients

10. Antiarrhythmic drug given IV rapid push

11. Vasodilator used in hypertensive crisis, heart failure, acute pulmonary edema

14. Calcium Channel Blocker administered for rate control

17. Inhibits platelet aggregation