

Name: _____

Name

Across

2. Where you own the property but not the land
5. Doing a good job gives you
7. An large costal town
12. Another term to look at a property
14. Document that shows who owns the title of a property
16. Adam's partner
17. Another term for temporary accommodation
18. Someone who deals with legal matters
19. Opposite to rural
20. A lump sum tax on property
23. A type of an legal agreement for tenants
24. When several buyers are waiting to complete
25. These vary and cover agents time

29. To be a member you must be experienced & trained
30. This is what we manage
32. One of the most common used material in building property
34. Our department manage other people's property
35. Income return on investment
37. Experience also make you?
39. Letting agents represent
40. This accommodation is when you rent a single room and use common areas

Down

1. The breadth of the UK
3. Website where property is advertised
4. Term for multiple properties owned by a landlord
6. Part of an asset greater than its liability
8. Associated with governance
9. Term for listing items in a property

10. A solicitor who specialises in transferring homeownership
11. Interest.....
13. Another terms for property
15. It's hosts property advertised by estate & letting agents
21. When a buyer confirms their interest in a property they make an
22. This acts as security and secures a purchase
26. This cricketer played for England
27. Type of occupancy where you own the property & land it sits on
28. Every day we strive for
31. The legal right of owning a property or land
33. Agents receive this when they sell a property
36. Another word for seller
38. Another term for mortgage