

Narcotics

Across

2. _____
High abuse potential.
6. When narcotics are combined with barbiturate general anesthetics the increase for respiratory depression, hypertension, sedation or _____ is likely.
7. Drugs that react at opioid receptor sites to stimulate the effects of the receptors
8. _____ are a less abusive narcotics

11. Narcotic agonist act at _____ in the CNS to produce, analgesia, sedation, and a sense of well-being.
12. _____ is a schedule I narcotic.
14. What is the prototype for narcotic agonist?
15. What is the therapeutic class of narcotics?
16. Narcotics are also called _____.

Down

1. Drugs that react at some opioid receptor sites to stimulate their activity and at other opioid receptor sites to block activity

3. A known allergy to any narcotic agonist-antagonist to avoid _____ reactions.
4. Narcotics are a _____
5. _____ is a pregnancy category B, all other narcotics are in category C.
9. Narcotics were originally derived from?
10. Where narcotics agonist-antagonists metabolized?
13. Have a narcotic _____ and equipment for assisted ventilation in case of severe adverse reaction.