

Native American Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. A group or community of indigenous people in the United States.

8. Winter Squash, Beans and corn were called this and were used to trade for other goods.

11. The Native Americans had to be flexible in a lot of their living conditions such as changing weather from hot to cold and other threatening enemies. What is this called?

12. A structure that they lived in and were long and the roof was round. They were made from trees and different types of grasses.

13. This is a spirit being or a sacred object or symbol of a tribe. It has an animal on it and they believe it is with you for life.

14. It is not necessarily a religious event but more about special beliefs and practices.

15. These are images that are created when removing part of a rock.

18. A member of a tribe that did not move a lot.

19. Beads of polished shells strung in strands, worn as a belt or other decoration and was also used as money.

20. A member of a tribe that moves from place to place has no permanent adobe.

Down

1. Another word for trading without using money.

2. The taking of land or to defeat or conquer.

3. A house made made of stone, mud, soil and sand. It had a doorway and also had many levels and they used ladders.

5. A tent like like structure made out of tree limbs and animal hide like buffalo. Circular in shape and has a opening at the top..

6. This is a legal designated area of land managed by a Native American tribe.

7. To become civilized give up their tribal ways and become absorbed into the American society.

9. This is a place where the Native Americans lived and grew their crops. It is a large mostly flat area of land.

10. This person is a chief of his tribe.

16. Its another word for ceremony.

17. A gathering of different American Indian communities. The word means spiritual leader.

