

Name: _____

Date: _____

Native Americans Vocabulary

Across

4. a long communal dwelling used by certain American Indians
 7. a fence or wall of stakes forming a defense barrier or fortification
 10. a carrier made of poles, attached to an animal to transport heavy loads.
 12. a native American dwelling commonly having an arched or conical framework overlaid with bark, hides, or mats.
 13. a brick or building material made of sun dried earth and straw
 14. a group of people who advise or govern

16. a division of a tribe tracing descent from a common ancestor
 17. a union of people, parties, or states; a league

Down

1. a person who practices magic for purposes of healing, communicating with the spirit world, and controlling natural events
 2. a village of connected buildings made by the Pueblo people of the Southwest.
 3. a traditional gathering that includes feasting, dancing, and gifts
 5. land set aside by the federal government for Native Americans

6. small, cylindrical beads made from polished shells and fashioned into strings and belts
 8. an underground ceremonial chamber found in a pueblo
 9. a portable, cone shaped tent made of poles, covered by skins or bark
 11. a council or meeting of Native Americans
 15. moving from place to place in search of food and water, having no fixed home