

New France

Across

- 3. The farmers who worked the land owned by the seigneurs
4. A French term meaning "runners of the woods"
5. A sum of money or personal property that a woman takes into a marriage
7. A geographical area in which all churches of a particular denomination are overseen by a Bishop
9. The area served by a local church

- 10. A man who was granted land by the king of France
11. A high-ranking Church official, usually in charge of a diocese
12. A person who oversees a colony on behalf of the monarch
13. People trained to lead religious organizations

Down

- 1. A society in which there are distant levels of status or authority

- 2. People who were under contract to serve their employer for a set time, doing hard labour for little pay
6. Young women, often orphans in the care of the Church, sent to marry settlers in New France
8. People who had one First Nation parent and one European parent