

New Republic Vocabulary

Across

3. a policy or attitude of letting things take their own course, without interfering
 7. an act in which men were captured and forced into naval service
 11. the power to hear a case for the first time
 15. an agreement or settlement of a dispute that is reached by each side making concessions
 16. the action of solving a problem, dispute, or continuous matter
 17. an amount of money or property left to someone
 19. establish or originate, especially by providing an endowment
 21. something, typically money, that is owed or due
 23. the total amount of money that a county's government has borrowed, by various means
 24. a state's annual income from which public expenses are met

26. a tax or duty to be paid on a particular class of imports or exports
 27. relating to cultivated land or the cultivation of land
 28. patriotic feeling, principles, or efforts

Down

1. not in accordance with political constitution
 2. an earlier event or action that is regarded as an example or guide to be considered in subsequent similar circumstances
 4. a series of laws, passed during the presidency of John Adams that sought to restrict the public activities of political radicals who sympathized with the French Revolution
 5. administrative decisions that are directly related to all issues and activity within a nation's border
 6. A person who supports a system or government
 8. A procedure by which a court can review an administrative action by a public body and secure a declaration, order, or award

9. a group of people that is superior (wealthy)
 10. a government's strategy in dealing with other nations
 12. the state of not supporting or helping either side in a conflict, disagreement, etc.
 13. a formal set of principal goals which are supported by a political party or individual candidate, in order to appeal to the general public
 14. a state in which supreme court is held by the people and their elected representatives, and which has an elected president rather than a monarch
 18. an organized group of people with at least roughly similar political aims and opinions, that seeks to influence public policy
 20. a body of advisors to the president, composed of the heads of the executive department of the government
 22. explain the meaning of something
 25. a tax levied on certain goods and commodities produced or sold within a country