

New Vocabulary Crossword

Across

2. An amount produced of an agricultural or industrial product

5. An act or process of closing something

7. Counteract (something) by having an equal and opposite force or effect

8. Not having a profound or clear effect on something

9. The chances or likelihood of something happening or being the case.

10. An amount to be paid, such as an installment, for a contract of insurance.

11. Causing severe shock, distress, or grief.

12. A thing that is intended to discourage someone from doing something.

Down

1. Available for use by option of the user.

3. A prolonged period of low rainfall, leading to a shortage of water.

4. The action of keeping something harmful under control

6. Relating to government revenue, especially taxes.