

Nicole's Watershed Crossword Project

Across

1. This word describes a species that is at risk of extinction.
5. This word describes a stream that flows into a river.
9. This word describes a species that is not native to the area.
12. This word describes the function of an organism in a community.
13. This word describes the ability to recover from misfortune.
14. This word describes water that is slightly salty in result of saltwater and freshwater combined.

15. This word describes the act of returning something to its former state.

Down

2. This word describes the saltiness level of water.
3. This word describes the process of wearing away at the surface of the earth.
4. This word describes the act of maintaining something so it does not change.
6. This word describes the state of being able to be maintained with basic necessities.
7. This word describes a species that is not invasive.

8. This word describes the process of filtering water.

10. This word describes the act of saving resources for future use.

11. This word describes water that is not absorbed by the ground and flows off of the earth into streams.