

Nothing but the Truth

Across

4. Who's side are Philip's parents on: his or the school's?

7. What was the whole incident revolved around anyway?

12. The characters in this novel need to take notice of their _____ and be carry them out, a key theme in the book.

14. "I don't know the words." Who said this at the end of the book?

16. Philip twisted the truth and said he was _____ all three times, but this only happened the third time.

18. The "Star Spangled Banner" incident occurred in this class.

19. This story revolves around a lot of _____.

20. English teacher at Harrison High who gets involved in a national incident regarding a student.

23. Many _____ were sent to Philip from around the country commemorating him for what he did.

25. The first newspaper that published the "Star Spangled Banner" incident.

26. Mr. and Mrs. Malloy _____ supported Philip by agreeing with what he did without hearing his story, a dangerous thing to do.

27. He decided to involve the reporter in order to let Roger exercise his rights, even though he got mad at Miss Narwin for "not letting" Philip exercise his.

28. Jake Barlow is a _____ because he didn't let Roger exercise his rights, even though he got mad at Miss Narwin for "not letting" Philip exercise his.

29. The Assistant Principal at Harrison High.

30. The consequence Philip received for acting out was a _____, which was finalized by Dr. Palleni.

Down

1. Allison approached Philip on the _____ because she liked him, but he brushed her off and ruined it.

2. _____ prevented Philip from being able to tryout for a sport.

3. "...I will work with the rest of the board to support basic _____." What two words are missing from this quote by Ted Griffen?

5. He is a talk show host who completely turns everyone against Miss Narwin and is super rude to everyone.

6. He was the cause of all the raucous.

8. The book takes place in _____.

9. Philip failing this class prevented him from being able to try out for a sport and resulted in his hatred of Miss Narwin.

10. What school did Philip transfer to at the end of the book?

11. The author of this novel, Avi, _____ the characters in the book and their exaggerated reactions to the events.

13. This can be a scary thing to say, but it is usually for the best.

15. Philip was originally _____ the national anthem, but the story kept getting twisted and changed.

17. Philip's original homeroom teacher.

21. _____ was the reporter on Miss Narwin's side when she was getting all the hate from everyone.

22. The Head Principal at Harrison High

24. Mr. Malloy got in an argument with _____ at his work, but he didn't stick up for himself, like he told Philip to do.