

Objective 2.01

Across

- 3. A type of learning that is highly institutionalized, recognized with grades, diplomas, or certificates
- 4. One bound by legal agreement to work for another for a specific amount of time in return for instruction in a trade, art, or business
- 7. An official document showing the educational work of a student in a school or college
- 11. A test developed and maintained by the US Department of Defense

- 12. A type of learning organized outside of the formal education system
- 13. A type of work experience for entry-level-job-seekers
- 14. Created by the secretary of labor to determine the skills our young people need to succeed in the world of work

Down

- 1. An official document that gives proof and detail of educational achievements
- 2. High school students taking college courses

- 5. Education after high school
- 6. A degree received after completing the curriculum of a 2-year community college program
- 8. Advanced placement, college courses taken in high school
- 9. Vocational student organizations that help develop leadership skills
- 10. A degree achieved after completing a 4- year college program