

Objective 4.00

Across

6. For product uniformity (ie drumstick)
 10. Supply fry or larvae to units for fingerling production
 11. Horses, mules
 13. Cattle, sheep, swine goats
 15. chicken grown for meat
 17. Chicken that produces large numbers of eggs
 20. Transferring of embryos from one female to another
 23. Bovine somatotropin, increases milk production
 24. Low in fiber high in nutrients
 27. Help all body functions and prevent many livestock diseases.
 28. Black and white markings. Produces the most milk and counts for 90% of the dairy industry in the US

29. farming of fish

30. Regulates body temperature

Down

1. One of the major minerals found in ground limestone. Needed for eggshell, bone and teeth development
 2. Animals with four stomach compartments
 3. injects growth hormones
 4. One stomach compartment
 5. Introduction of male sperm into the reproductive track of a female
 7. Aquatic animals in a small area of a pond
 8. horse used for riding, hunting, and working cattle
 9. pig producers
 12. Builds muscle and provides energy for animals

14. Chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese

16. used to measure the temperature of animals
 18. hog producers
 19. high in fiber
 21. broad breasted white
 22. Black breed known for excellent meat quality
 25. Roughage that results from storage and fermentation of green crops
 26. Used to examine eggs