

Occupational Psychology Cross Word

Across

- 5. In 1956 George Miller found that the number of items an average human can hold in working memory is 'what' + or -2?
- 6. The sign below which is often used to represent the word, or study of Psychology is the 23rd letter of which alphabet?
- 7. Which type of tests are used to measure individuals' mental capabilities and behavioural styles to determine candidates' suitability for a role?
- 8. In a study of employees in the banking sector, which 'a' from the Big 5 Personality Traits was found to be a predictor of employee commitment and performance?
- 10. Which Famous 'Daniel' helped to popularise Emotional Intelligence through his best selling books?

- 11. Which two words meaning to have a conscious knowledge of one's own character and feelings is considered a key component of emotional intelligence?

Down

- 1. An IQ (intelligence quotient) score of around 140 to 145 is considered to be 'what' IQ?
- 2. A set of brain structures form which 'system' that carries out emotions like fear and love?
- 3. In the Myers-Briggs personality test, which personality type with the code INFJ is the rarest?
- 4. Which lobe in the cerebral cortex of the brain is considered the control panel for our personality?
- 9. The term 'emotional intelligence' was coined in 1990 and described as a form of what intelligence?