

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Ocean Life

Across

4. What is the name of a species from the class Mollusca that looks similar to a tusk?

7. The Horseshoe Crab is found in class _____.

10. Class _____ contain species such as slugs and snails.

12. In which class are Oysters found?

13. Species in Class _____ are often teardrop shaped.

14. _____ and other Cephalopods have ink sacks which allows them to confuse both predators and prey; helps them escape a predator or catch prey.

Down

1. The Nautilus is found in class _____.

2. Both _____ and Arthropoda molt their exoskeleton.

3. The Chiton is classified as a _____.

5. Some species in Phylum Cephalopoda may _____ to their environment for protection or other reasons.

6. Snails, Octopuses, Squids, and Oysters are some of the species of Phylum _____.

8. _____ are found in class Cirripedia.

9. Phylum _____ includes some sea worms and the most common known; the earth worm.

11. What Species is known for being able to think and problem solve? (Class Cephalopoda)