

Name: _____

Date: _____

Oct 1 Vocabulary

Across

6. a 50 acre grant of land given to colonial settlers who paid their way

8. laborer who agrees to work without pay for an amount of time in exchange for passage to America

9. a list of fundamental laws to support a government.

10. ability to accept or put up with different views

12. a written grant by a country's legislative or sovereign power, by which a body such as a company, college, or city is founded and its rights and privileges defined.

Down

1. landowner in the Dutch colonies who ruled over large areas of land

2. to disagree with or oppose an opinion

3. a company in which investors buy stock in return for a share of its profits.

4. person or country that owes money

5. to mistreat a person or group on the basis of their beliefs

7. people opposed to the use of war violence to settle disputes.

11. elected representative to an assembly