

Of Mice and Men

Across

2. Suspicion or fear of future trouble
 3. Warlike; aggressively hostile
 8. Lying down; reclining
 11. A bundle, as of bedding, carried by a hobo
 13. Ridicule, mockery
 14. A cistern, well, or pit for retaining the sediment of a drain or the sewage from a house

16. Trying to fain favor through a cringing or flattering manner

18. In a downcast manner
 20. Removed or distant either physically or emotionally
 21. Dejected, dispirited

Down

1. Twisted out of normal shape
 4. To speak in a monotonous tone
 5. Said or done with a feeling or attitude of deep respect tinged with awe

6. Deserving of a sharp reprimand; blameworthy

7. Anger aroused by something unjust, mean, or unworthy
 9. To look at or view with continued attention; observe or study thoughtfully
 10. Roughly, abruptly
 12. To show scorn or contempt
 15. A mule driver
 17. Disparaging, depreciating, tending to lessen the merit or reputation of a person or thing
 19. Money