

Ophthalmology Glossary Crossword Part Two

Across

- 3. Inflammation of the lacrimal gland
7. A technique of examining the iridocorneal angle
9. Removal of cilia
11. The protrusion of Descemet's membrane through a deep corneal ulcer
19. The presence of an aberrant row of cilia. These cilia originate from the meibomian glands
20. Sympathetic nerve paralysis with protrusion of the third eyelid, miosis, ptosis and enophthalmos
21. Pus in the anterior chamber
23. Infection of the glands of Moll & Zeis
26. The protrusion of the eyeball

- 27. Abnormally shaped pupil

- 28. The removal of the eyeball and the soft tissues in the orbit

Down

- 1. Modified sebaceous glands in the eyelids
2. The overflow of tears due to blockage of the lacrimal duct system
4. Inflammation of the inner structures of the eye
5. Inflammation of the superficial tissue of the sclera
6. Removal of the eyeball
8. Increased intraocular pressure
10. The junction of the palpebral and bulbar conjunctiva

- 12. Infection of the Meibomian (Tarsal) gland

- 13. The removal of the contents of the eye with retention of the cornea and the sclera

- 14. Blood in the anterior chamber

- 15. Small particles in the vitreous

- 16. Sweat glands in the eyelids

- 17. Abnormal recession of the eye into the orbital

- 18. An eversion of the eyelid

- 22. The posterior layers of the eye that can be seen with an ophthalmoscope

- 24. The unit in which the refracting strength of the lens is designed

- 25. Rolling in of the eyelid margin

Word Bank

Diopter
 Floaters
 Glands of Zies
 Exophthalmos
 Fundus
 Evisceration

Hordeolum externum
 Enucleation
 Epiphora
 Episcleritis
 Epilation
 Horners syndrome

Dyscoria
 Gonioscopy
 Dacryoadenitis
 Distichiasis
 Glaucoma
 Fornix

Hordeolum
 Descemetocoele
 Hyphema
 Exenteration
 Enophthalmitis

Hypopion
 Entropion
 Glands of Moll
 Enophthalmos
 Ectropion