

Name: _____

Date: _____

Oral Communication

Across

2. Natural division of words when pronounced
 6. The part of manuscript speaking where you summarize all the main points to end your speech.
 11. Man is a _____ being
 13. It is the study and classification of speech sounds.
 14. It is the part of the manuscript speech where you have to prove your right to speak about the topic
 16. The core of a persuasive speech which means appealing to and resonating with the audience's feelings and emotions.
 17. correct spelling of the word "tomorrow"

19. The Latin term for communication which means "to make something common"

20. A type of listening where you do not need to remember the content of the message, you simply enjoy what is being said

Down

1. Interpersonal communication between two people involving their ideas.
 3. This is a one sentence summary about your speech topic
 4. Hearing is a natural process while _____ is a skill
 5. This part of the manuscript speech discusses all the points and ideas you want to explain about your topic.
 7. Communication is the process of understanding and sharing _____

8. This speech tends to be shorter speeches, commonly less than ten minutes.

9. the emphasis given to certain syllables in a word, or to certain words in a phrase or sentence.

10. a speech that praises someone or something highly, typically someone who has just died.

12. This part of the manuscript speech includes the greetings

15. _____communication uses either the written or the spoken language

18. A speech in which the speaker relays knowledge to an audience on a specific topic.