

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Oral Communication lab.- Vocabulary words 23pts.

Across

2. Method of delivery where the speech is committed to memory
 7. Loudness or softness of your voice
 11. The meaning and feelings associated with a word by an individual, based on personal experience
 14. The speed at which we speak
 17. A short story used by a speaker to illustrate a point
 18. The vocal notes you hit while speaking
 19. Altering your vocal tone and pitch
 20. A device speakers use whereby they look directly into their listener's eyes in order to emphasize a point or to show how strongly they feel about something

22. A communication approach that lacks action and energy and appears disinterested and uninvolved
 23. The distinctness with which we say the syllables in a word

Down

1. The ability to work well with others by using polite communication procedures
 3. Word for word account of an interview
 4. The pitch and timbre (distinctive tone) of a person's voice
 5. Saying the sounds of a word properly and stressing the correct syllable
 6. Nonstandard words associated with certain groups
 8. Expressing information or ideas through human language
 9. refers to analog to digital conversion.

10. Unrehearsed delivery, which involves speaking spontaneously
 12. A literary device that places words that are in opposition directly beside one another (cruel kindness)
 13. A direct, yet tactful, communication approach
 15. A word or group of words substituted for a word that is offensive or distasteful
 16. The specialized vocabulary of people in the same profession of similar group
 21. the process of translating into meaning