

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Othello II

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. quirk | A. being of striking pertinence |
| 2. contention | B. ready flow of speech |
| 3. citadel | C. strange habit or attitude |
| 4. paradox | D. interfere with progress |
| 5. apt | E. necessary for relief |
| 6. discreet | F. marked by modesty |
| 7. satiety | G. criticism or disapproval |
| 8. eminent | H. sun crossing plane of equator |
| 9. voluble | I. compete for prize or profit |
| 10. counterfeit | J. not genuine |
| 11. requisite | K. deceitful scoundrel |
| 12. lechery | L. stronghold for battle |
| 13. marshal | M. unrestrained sexual activity |
| 14. impediment | N. above others in quality |
| 15. egregiously | O. beyond normal limits |
| 16. wary | P. beg urgently |
| 17. potent | Q. watchful keenness |
| 18. equinox | R. having force or authority |
| 19. rogue | S. cast off |
| 20. censure | T. outrageously bad |
| 21. entreat | U. lead ceremoniously |
| 22. inordinate | V. request earnestly |
| 23. importune | W. contradictory statement |
| 24. renounce | X. wasting time |
| 25. dilatory | Y. satisfactorily full |