

Outer Banks Crossword Puzzle (2019 Edition)

Across

8. Name of the luxurious gardens in Manteo that serve as a living memorial to the lost colonists of Roanoke Island.

10. Transportation method will take visitors from Hatteras Island to Ocracoke Island.

12. Last name of the original owners who built the Whalehead Club in Corolla as a hunting club in the 1920s.

13. A landscape next to water that is proven to have benefits on someone's physical, mental, and emotional health.

14. Legend says that if you wander into Nags Head Woods, you may encounter this half-man half-animal creature that will chase you with an axe.

15. Name of the bridge that once connected Nags Head to Hatteras Island but was replaced in February 2019.

16. These types of scurrying sand crabs are fun to "hunt" at night with flash lights.

17. September 2019 Hurricane that left a path of destruction on the Outer Banks, especially Hatteras Island and Ocracoke Island.

19. Name of the first foal born to the Corolla Wild Horse herd in March 2019.

20. Visit this place in Manteo to see the beloved river otters Finn and Banks along with sting rays, fish, sea turtles, and sharks.

21. This lunar experience occurred on January 21, 2019 at the same time as the Lunar Eclipse creating a unique blood-red color and earning the nickname "Blood Wolf."

22. Name for a fun dining experience guests can have in their rental home where shellfish is steamed alongside vegetables like corn and red potatoes.

24. Pieces of wood and fabric from this machine were taken aboard the Apollo 11 Lunar Module and the Space Shuttle Challenger.

25. This unique lighthouse is actually a replica of one that once stood off the coast of Wanchese but was lost to the Albemarle Sound during water transport to Edenton, NC.

Down

1. Type of seafood that can be eaten raw, steamed, or used as a main ingredient.

2. Since 1999, this "Dr." has chosen an Outer Banks town as the top beach in America.

3. Lifesaving station built in 1874 known for the attempted rescue of the SS Mirlo in 1918 during WWI.

4. Nickname for Sandy Run Park in Kitty Hawk earned by the animals that fill the canals.

5. Relaxing activity that is best done after a high tide or storm in areas of the beach with little foot traffic.

6. Nickname given to the Wild Corolla horses that originally descended from 16th century Spanish Mustangs.

7. Unique material that is created by tumbling surf and comes in many shapes, sizes, and colors.

9. This "side" of the beach is great for kids and perfect for watersports, crabbing, and watching sunsets.

11. Lighthouse that is 162-ft. tall, boasts a first-order Fresnel lens and is recognized for its natural brick color.

18. On Ocracoke Island, a small British cemetery is home to a memorial for sailors from this ship that was struck down by German U-Boats in 1942.

23. This Wright Brother flew the final flight on December 17, 1903 that lasted 59 seconds and traveled 852 feet.