

Name: _____

Date: _____

PBMF-3

Across

3. Natural disposition of success toward an area

5. career

9. Being involved in large social groups of peers

12. Nonverbal communication

14. Characteristics and emotional makeup of an individual

15. Looking outside of a familiar environment or social network

18. Learning more about a job through an apprentice-like style

19. Beginning level of a job system; the bottom of a position pyramid in a company

20. personal moral code

21. Subjects that catch an individual's attention

22. Requirements for a position or job

24. Cover to a resume and discusses why an individual wants a certain job

Down

1. What a job mainly consist of and the goal of the job.

2. Raw skill toward a subject area

4. Working without pay for a cause

6. Not required

7. In original order or the order given

8. What an individual can do

10. Working as a volunteer(in most cases) and receiving valuable experience toward a certain area.

11. Face-to-face meeting and discussion with a company official about a job opportunity.

13. 40 hours + of work

16. Role in an environment or situation

17. Document that lets an employer know why he should hire you.

23. long term job and affiliations with that subject area