

Name: _____

Date: _____

PITUITARY DRUGS

Across

- 1. Augment or antagonize the effects of the pituitary hormones
- 3. Patients may have these changes affecting their body image as a possible adverse effect
- 11. Alleviates symptoms of carcinoid tumors; used for acromegaly, small bowel fistula
- 12. Hormone that increases water resorption in distal tubules, concentrates urine, & reduces water excretion
- 15. Hormone that promotes growth by stimulating anabolic tissue building process, sodium, potassium, & phosphorus retention
- 16. Medicine that promotes renal retention of sodium, can result in edema and hypertension

- 18. Stimulates breast growth in females
- 20. Common GI effects of Octreotide is
- 21. Works with the CNS to govern all bodily functions

Down

- 2. Stimulates ejection of milk and contraction of uterine smooth muscle
- 4. Secretes ADH, oxytocin
- 5. Used to control polydipsia, polyuria, & dehydration in diabetic patients, stops bleeding with esophageal varices
- 6. Secretes hormones from anterior pituitary gland to control bodily functions
- 7. Children with endocrine disorders may have an increased risk of _____ problems

- 8. Growth hormone used to treat growth failure, also used for wasting/cachectic HIV patients
- 9. Targets adrenal gland, mediates adaptation to physical/emotional stress & starvation
- 10. Made up of 2 distinct lobes: anterior and posterior
- 13. Common Cardiovascular adverse effects of Vasopressin & Desmopressin are _____ blood pressure
- 14. Hormone that stimulates ovulation & estrogen release by ovaries in females
- 17. This lobe secretes TSH, GH, ACTH, prolactin, FSH, & luteinizing hormone
- 19. Increases the production & secretion of thyroid hormones