

POETIC TERMS CROSSWORD

Across

5. Words that appeal to the senses and help us picture something
7. Repetition of a letter in a group of words close together
8. Giving human qualities of characteristics to animals or objects
10. The use of words with matching sounds. Can be in the middle or at ends of lines

11. Example: "I couldn't believe what was happening to me as the opened the cell. This is hell"

12. A pair of lines, usually rhymed

13. Repetition of a vowel sound

Down

1. A line ending in which the syntax, rhythm and thought are continued into the next line

2. Example: "The rain poured over the window like someone had turned on a garden hose"

3. Words and phrases that cause an emotional response in the reader

4. The purposeful re-use of words and phrases

6. Using words to describe or imitate sound

9. The pace or beat of the poem - can vary from line to line