

POETRY TERMS

Across

1. Giving human characteristics to inanimate objects.
4. Something that stands for something else in poetry in literature.
7. Poetry that has no set meter or beat; tries to capture the beauty of ordinary sounds in speech.
9. Very long and narrative poetry that tells a story of a hero who embodies the values of a culture
12. When a word sounds or imitates the activity being described.
13. Two consecutive lines of poetry that form a unit, often emphasized by rhythm or rhyme.

15. Poetry that expresses a speaker's emotions or thoughts and does not tell a story.
16. A regular pattern of beats within a line of poetry.
17. A direct comparison between two unlike objects that says that one thing is something else.
18. A 14-line poem written in iambic pentameter.
20. Language that appeals to all of the senses.

Down

2. A comparison between two unlike objects that uses "like" or "as".
3. Repetition of beginning consonant sounds.

5. The voice of the poem.
6. The way a character speaks; it may depict origin or social group.
8. Rhyming words at the ends of lines of poetry.
10. The feelings that an author takes towards the subject of the poem.
11. Song or song-like poem that tells a story.
14. Type of rhythmic, compressed language that uses figurative language and imagery to appeal to the reader's senses and imagination.
19. The central idea in a piece of writing.