

Page 5 Terms

Across

2. a loud whisper that can be overheard.

8. to clear from the stage completely; take down and store away when the run of the play has ended.

10. standing while clapping after a performance is over as a means to honor the performers.

11. scenery used to identify a location of a dramatic production.

12. script instructions for movement, business, lighting, sound, ect. Usually in parentheses.

Down

1. the part of the stage to the actors left.

3. nervous feeling about performing.

4. one who moves scenery on and off stage; grip.

5. someone who supervises the physical aspects of the show and is in charge of the stage during a performance.

6. a dramatic speech giving the illusion of unspoken reflection.

7. sections of the stage, named for their relation to the audience.

9. the part of the stage to the actors right.