

Pain Communication

Across

- 2. Pain reduction interventions that can be delegated to non-licensed staff.
- 3. A factor that can contribute to a person who is experiencing pain not to show any outward signs.
- 6. A screening for the presence of pain or discomfort.
- 10. How information regarding patient's pain management is communicated to the multi-disciplinary team.

11. The level of comfort the patient prefers.

12. Reduces inflammation, swelling and nerve activity thus relieving pain.

Down

- 1. A therapy that works to relieve pain in patients who are anxious about their pain.
- 4. The need for gradually increasing doses of medication to maintain an equal analgesic effect over time.
- 5. Instead of asking a patient if they have pain, ask them if they have _____.

7. Often accompanies pain and is characterized by excessive worrying, restlessness, disturbed sleep and irritability.

8. A common tool used for the assessment of pain in children.

9. An unpleasant sensory and emotional experience associated with actual or potential tissue damage.