

Paper 1 Memory

Across

2. What did Peterson and Peterson want to prevent by making participants count backwards in 3's?
3. What type of coding did Baddeley find was mainly coded in STM?
5. What type of LTM stores memories of events and experiences?
8. In the WMM what controls decision-making and reasoning?
9. What is the technique used to help recall the exact details of a crime observed?

10. What is the name of the long-term memory store for our knowledge of learned skills?

Down

1. What does the digit span experiment measure?
4. What type of forgetting is this? Forgetting your password to your old email account now that you have a new one
6. What is the method of organising items into familiar, meaningful units?
7. What is the name of the long-term memory store for facts and our knowledge of the world?