

Parasitology

Across

2. Two dissimilar organisms living together in close union is known as?
 4. A parasite that cannot exist without the host is also known as?
 5. A domestic pet species that may commonly be affected by myiasis
 10. Another name for a tapeworm
 11. What is the exoskeleton of an arthropod made of?
 13. A parasite that lives inside the body of its host
 16. The type of life cycle where a parasite requires at least one intermediate host in order to complete its life cycle.

17. Name the zoonotic disease associated with a tick infestation
 18. The type of parasite transmission where a parasite travels to its host
 19. An example of a temporary parasite
 20. What is the name of the head part of a tapeworm?
 21. Another word for fly-strike or fly-blown
 22. The correct term for a louse infestation
 23. An insect that commonly infests domestic animals

Down

1. What is the Genus and species of the sheep tick?
 3. Another name for a roundworm
 6. A host that carries one parasite to another
 7. A parasite that lives on the outside surface of the body of a host
 8. The final host
 9. The name of a host used by a parasite within the course of its life cycle
 12. A flukeworm is also known as?
 14. A characteristic of a tapeworm
 15. What are louse eggs known as?