

Name: _____

Date: _____

Part 3

1. (n.) a religious service or rite; the form of a ritual or other act of public worship. synonyms: ceremony, observance A. icon
2. (n.) something illusory, without substance, or without a basis in reality; an illusion. synonym: optical illusion B. morass
3. (n.) a patch of low, soft, wet ground; a swamp; a confusing situation in which one is entrapped, as in quicksand synonyms: bog, quagmire antonyms: solid ground, bedrock, terra firma C. proselyte
4. (adj.) offensive or disgusting; foul-smelling; harmful or injurious synonyms: fetid, noxious, vile, loathsome antonyms: wholesome, pleasant, sweet-smelling D. solecism
5. (adj.) forgetful; unaware synonym: insensible antonyms: aware, mindful, cognizant, alert E. Lachrymose
6. (n.) a base coward synonyms: craven, dastard, "chicken" antonyms: hero, stalwart, gallant F. minuscule
7. (n) a convert; a disciple synonyms: novice, neophyte antonyms: master, teacher, guide, guru G. poltroon
8. (adj.) resembling but not actually being; seemingly but not actually or completely synonyms: kind of, semi-, as if antonyms: totally, completely, actually, in fact H. microcosm
9. (n.) good-humored ridicule; teasing synonyms: banter, persiflage I. lexicon
10. (adj.) irreverently mocking; coarse, vulgar, or indecent in language synonyms: bawdy, risqué antonyms: seemly, proper, decorous J. vassal
11. (adj.) lying flat on one's back; listless or lethargic; apathetic or passive synonyms: prone, prostrate; inert antonyms: upright, erect, perpendicular, vertical K. obfuscate
12. (n.) a short description or sketch; a picture or illustration with edges that gradually shade off; a decorative design on the title page of a book or at the beginning or end of a chapter. synonyms: thumbnail sketch, anecdote antonyms: epic, full-length treatment. L. noisome
13. (adj.) given to tears or weeping; causing to shed tears; mournful, lugubrious Syn- sad, sob, cry Ant- happy, joyous M. raillery
14. (n.) a dictionary of a language; the special vocabulary of a person, group, or subject; a compendium Syn- knowledge Ant- ignorant N. melee

15. (n.) a confused struggle; a violent free-for-all; a tumultuous mingling disturbance, scrimmage Ant- compatible	O. liturgy
16. (n.) a miniature world or universe; a group or system viewed as the model of a larger group or system Syn- model,	P. verisimilitude
17. (adj.) very small, tiny (n.) a lowercase letter Syn- microscopic, little, sample Ant- huge, ginormous	Q. paternalism
18. (v.) to darken or obscure; to confuse or bewilder Syn- unclear, dazed Ant- sure, direct, clear	R. sanguine
19. (n.) the policy or practice of treating or governing people in the manner of a father dealing with his children Syn- part, separate Ant- join, fluid, consitatan	S. oblivious
20. (v.) to cause to concentrate around two conflicting or contrasting positions; to cause light to vibrate in a pattern	T. mirage
21. (n.) the range, extent, or scope of something; in law, the scope or limit of what is provided in a statute Syn- attention, concept Ant- distraction	U. polarize
22. (adj.) having a ruddy complexion; of a naturally cheerful, confident, or optimistic outlook Syn- positive, joyful, thankful Ant- depressed	V. supine
23. (n.) a substandard or ungrammatical usage; a breach of etiquette; any impropriety or mistake Syn- incorrect, false Ant- true	W. purview
24. (n.) a person under the protection of a feudal lord to whom he or she owes allegiance; a subordinate or dependent; a servant (adj.) subservient Syn- maid, slave, worker Ant- owner, master, boss	X. quasi
25. (n.) the quality of appearing to be true, real, likely, or probable Syn- real, show, credibility Ant- illusion	Y. ribald
26. (n.) a representation or image of a sacred personage, often considered sacred itself; an image or picture; a symbol; a graphic symbol on a computer monitor display; an object of blind devotion SYN: emblem, idol	Z. vignette