

Parties and Elections

Across

2. our current president
 4. when someone watches the people in power to see if they mess up
 6. being formally accused of wrongdoing
 12. America's Independence Day
 14. what amendment lets african american men vote?
 15. the month of every election
 17. the number of supreme court justices
 19. the current speaker of the house

Word Bank

|                    |               |              |             |            |
|--------------------|---------------|--------------|-------------|------------|
| iowa               | democratic    | donaldtrump  | oneparty    | november   |
| nancypelosi        | berniesanders | thirdparties | impeachment | grassroots |
| nationalconvention | makelaws      | nine         | julyfourth  | watchdog   |
| general            | closedprimary | republican   | fifteenth   | primary    |

20. campaign that starts with knocking on doors and introducing yourself

Down

1. what does legislate mean?
 3. the event where the party nominee is officially chosen
 5. this political party wants more government control
 7. Senator from Vermont running for President again
 8. countries like Iran and China have a _____ system

9. this primary only lets registered party members vote
 10. this party uses the elephant as a symbol
 11. these types of parties dont win elections, but can still be influential
 13. this type of election is lots of people from one party
 16. this type of election is only 2 people from the major parties
 18. the state with the most important caucus