

Name: _____

Date: _____

Parts of a Theatre

Across

- 5. the lounge backstage
- 7. space for storage and construction
- 9. used for public entry into the building where concessions and restrooms are located
- 10. any area in the theatre where the audience is seated

Down

- 1. section of the theatre designated for the operation of technical equipment including lighting and sound boards

- 2. area in front and below the stage
- 3. the portal, or arch, that divides the audience from the stage
- 4. where tickets are sold to the public
- 6. ropes, counterweights, pulleys, etc. designed to allow a tech crew to quickly move set pieces by "flying" them in
- 8. elevated platform from which technical functions, especially lighting, may be manipulated