

Name: _____

Date: _____

Parvana

Across

- 4. Long loose shirt and trousers worn by both women and men
- 9. A mans headdress worn chiefly by Muslims in southern Asia, consisting of a long cloth made of silk, linen, cotton, ect. Wound directly around head or about a cap
- 10. An Afghan hat
- 11. Name of the book
- 14. Members of the ruling party in Afghanistan
- 15. A food that is often eaten in Afghanistan

- 16. A narrow mattress used in many Afghan homes instead of chairs or beds
- 17. One or the two main languages spoken in afghanistan
- 18. A seaport in Pakistan
- 19. A Moslem festival coming at the end of Ramadan, the month of fasting
- 20. Where parvana was born

Down

- 1. who tried to invade Afghanistan
- 2. To deprive of the use of a body part by wounding or the like

- 3. One of the two main languages spoken in Afghanistan
- 5. where is the story set
- 6. Where did parvanas dad go to school
- 7. An intricate combination of paths or passages in which it is difficult to fond ones way or to reach an exit
- 8. A long tent like garment that women have to wear outside in Afghanistan
- 12. who got taken to jail
- 13. A cart on wheels, push ed by hand, used to sell things in the market