

Passage to India

Across

- 1. Performance of traditional Indian dancing by professional dancers.
- 3. In Muslim countries, a title for a woman of nobility or elevated social rank; Muslim wife or widow
- 8. Water pipe used to smoke tobacco
- 13. In Islam, the first month of the calendar. On the tenth day of this month, Muslims commemorate the martyrdom of Hussein bin Ali, the grandson of Mohammed. On this day in A Passage to India, confrontations flare up between Muslims and Hindus.
- 14. Horse-drawn carriage for two passengers with a folding top

15. Wind instrument similar to an oboe

16. In Hinduism, a priest. Brahmins make up the highest class in the Hindu caste system

19. Curtain or screen used by some Muslims and Hindus to hide women from the public eye; Muslim and Hindu practice of keeping women fully clothed.

Down

2. Term of respect, such as sir or lord, used by Indians to address or discuss an important person

4. In Hinduism, the law of the universe governing nature and morality; observance of this law. In Buddhism, the universal truth, according to Buddha

5. perching songbird of Asia and Africa.

6. Messenger; servant; henchman

7. In Hinduism, devotion to a deity that helps a person gain salvation.

9. Sport hunting

10. In Hinduism, a daily ritual in the home

11. Head covering to protect the wearer against the sun

12. People from northwestern India (now part of Pakistan) who speak the Pashto language

17. rule or rulership

18. Canopied seat for riding on an elephant's back