

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pediatric Mental Health & Cognition

Across

7. Chromosomal abnormality in which children have intellectual disability, and often also have congenital heart disease or leukemia
8. Disorders with significant difficulty in use of listening, reading, writing and math skills
10. Chromosomal abnormality in which children have large ears, long narrow face with prominent jaw and autistic like behaviors

Down

1. Disorder characterized by sadness, despair, hopelessness, loss of interest, decreased energy, sleep and appetite disturbances

2. Disorder characterized by impaired social interaction, impaired communication, repetitive patterns of behavior, and difficulty adapting to new situations
3. Disorder characterized by flat face with low nasal bridge, intellectual disability and failure to thrive
4. Disorder where child has sudden, rapid, recurrent motor movements or vocalizations
5. Disorder that manifests with extreme changes in affect and energy
6. Disorder in which children have inattention, inability to concentrate, restlessness, hyperactivity and impulsiveness
9. Disorder characterized by excessive worry, restlessness, poor concentration, and sleep disturbance