

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pediatric Review

- | | |
|--|---------------------------|
| 1. Preterm babies are at risk for ___ complications | A. milia |
| 2. Post-term babies at risk for ___ | B. pyloric stenosis |
| 3. Baby has a ___ response to loud noises. | C. polydactyly |
| 4. A 'walnut' found on belly exam of infant may be? | D. cardiovascular |
| 5. Bluish color of hands/feet of a newborn | E. acrocyanosis |
| 6. Fine hair that can coat an infant at birth | F. cephalohematoma |
| 7. Fatty material covering skin of infant at birth | G. ortolani's sign |
| 8. White/yellow nodule found in baby skin, retention of sebaceous material | H. Vernix Caseosa |
| 9. Skin coloring from dilation of blood vessels, darker with crying | I. thyroglossal duct cyst |
| 10. Congenital dermal melanocytosis is aka | J. caput succedaneum |
| 11. Scalp swelling from delivery that crosses suture lines | K. branchial cleft cyst |
| 12. Scalp swelling after birth that does not cross suture lines | L. syndactyly |
| 13. Flat spot on baby's head caused by pressure | M. epstein pearls |
| 14. White yellow cysts in mouth on newborn | N. plagiocephaly |
| 15. Congenital cyst found on lateral neck | O. Lanugo |
| 16. Cyst found on anterior neck | P. meconium aspiration |
| 17. Extra fingers or toes | Q. stork bite |
| 18. Webbed fingers or toes | R. Barlow's sign |
| 19. Dislocation of the newborn hip is called | S. startle |
| 20. Reduction of newborn hip dislocation | T. mongolian spot |