

Pediatric Sedation

Across

2. All Pediatric Sedation nurses should remain current on BLS and what other training?
5. Nitrous oxide is contraindicated for this commonly occurring infection in pediatrics
6. Propofol is this class of drug
7. _____ sedation refers to when the patient remains awake
8. NPO stands for this in Latin
10. Trade name associated with Propofol

11. also known as "laughing gas"

Down

1. opioid reversal agent
3. opioid analgesic frequently given with propofol to assist in pain control
4. True or false? A patient should be able to ingest and retain fluids following sedation.
9. vital signs should be recorded every _____ minutes during deep sedation