

Peeps of the Revolution

Across

- 2. published poet, political playwright and satirist during the age of the American Revolution—a time when women were encouraged and expected to keep silent on political matters
- 8. who could easily recall Britain's cruel treatment of the Scots — sided with the colonists and joined the new Continental Navy
- 10. pretended to relay important information about movements of American forces to General Arnold
- 11. had to make all sorts of decisions, manage the finances, take care of the farm, and educate the children

- 13. was sympathetic to American views during pre-war political disputes in Parliament but became one of the most prominent British generals during the War for Independence
- 14. Virginia legislature in which he famously declared, "Give me liberty, or give me death!"
- 15. He also rode north when Paul Revere rode west to warn colonists that the redcoats were coming

Down

- 1. Leader of the British during the American Revolution
- 3. commanded the Continental Army in the American Revolutionary War
- 4. people who wanted the American colonies to gain their independence from Britain, they wanted their own country called the United States

- 5. wanted to pursue peaceful forms of protest because they believed that violence would give rise to mob rule or tyranny
- 6. he served in the Second Continental Congress and helped draft the Declaration of Independence in 1776
- 7. Boston-born political leader, the second cousin of President John Adams
- 9. was the first person shot and killed with two bullets in the chest in the historic event that became known as The Boston Massacre
- 12. identified the basis of a legitimate government