

Name: _____

Performance in School

Across

3. Consumer Studies is an example of a () activity
4. () is a skill that must be developed if you want to take part in all science subjects
8. This skill is necessary for all subjects offered at both school and university level
9. () subjects require skills such as reading, writing and speaking
10. In this subject you will need problem-solving skills (usually in the form of word sums)

Down

1. History is an example of a () activity
2. This skill is needed in all subjects related to the Arts
5. You prefer these activities when you can work on your own and at your own pace
6. This type of learning usually involves two or more people sharing their opinions and ideas
7. The ability to do something well, it is also something that you can get better at